

Help Support Student-Athletes

We hope this letter finds you well and appreciate your interest in helping our young student-athletes. Since 2010, as a 501c3 nonprofit organization, we have been dedicated to empowering student-athletes. Today, we are reaching out to you for your support in our mission. Our sponsors play a vital role in providing essential resources, mentorship, and opportunities that enable these young individuals to excel both in their sports and academics. What we do is not only impactful but also deeply rewarding.

The Louisville Prospects Foundation sees value in everyone, being a catalyst for positive change. We believe in the development of young ladies through positive leadership, dedication, team, and sportsmanship. We demonstrate through perseverance, hard work, and the ability to learn from failure, anything and everything is possible. Our goal is not just ball, rather to help girls become admirable, confident and strong young ladies.
